Behold I make all things new

(Rev. 21:1-6)

In his final sermon before going on sabbatical, Pastor Jon preached on these words from Revelation. Jesus says "behold I make all things new." Pastor Jon told Briella, who was baptized at 8 AM that morning, that in the waters of baptism, Jesus promises new life for her. He told the graduating seniors at the 10:30 AM service, that God has great plans for them as they step out in the world to new adventures, new experiences. The alpha and omega, the beginning and the end – Jesus – holds them (and all of us) in his embrace, surrounding them with the love that brings new life.

For Pastor Jon, he awaits what is new. In 33 years of ministry he has not had a sabbatical, a time of rest and renewal. This will be a new experience, and I'm not sure if it's one he looks forward to or not. He already has his days structured and planned; the list of things to accomplish and to do is lengthy. Someone made the observation that being a pastor is what Pastor Jon knows how to be; for so long he has had the responsibility for others, caring for them, nurturing them, providing support, preaching, teaching, visiting, and sharing the sacraments. This has been his Calling and you don't just turn that off. It takes work to relax. But Jesus says, "behold I make all things new." In Pastor Jon's sermon he noted that if we try to live in the past, "the good old days", we don't trust Jesus' words that he makes all things new. But that is hard, very hard … to let go of our control and spread our wings, taking flight and soaring where God calls us and where God leads us. So, Pastor Jon, we will look forward to seeing what Jesus makes new in you, as you let go and soar, allowing yourself to be refreshed and renewed.

Holding down the fort here at church will be a bit new for me. I had my own congregation before and I did just fine, but I also had the support and wisdom of my husband. When challenges and obstacles crept up, I didn't have to tackle them alone. Not being able to talk through things with my partner at the dinner table will be new, but I will have the support and help of a group of talented staff, leaders, and a faithful congregation. Things may not always get done the way they're supposed to, the way they used to be in "the good old days." But they will get done … Jesus makes all things new … and we trust his words! Besides … it's only three months … how badly can I mess things up? ☺

There is a sense of adventure when you think about doing something new. There is also some apprehension about stepping outside of your comfort zone and doing something new. So we, too, must take to heart the words of the sermon – we must trust Jesus' words that he makes all things new and he will be with us on this journey.

As Briella goes forth, as the graduates go forth, as Pastor Jon goes forth, as we go forth here in this place, and as you go forth in your everyday lives … remember … Jesus says "I make all things new" … trust his words and his presence and go forth boldly!

Looking forward to making things new with you,
Pastor Jean

Forward: Fearless and Faithful!

The Forward: Fearless and Faithful team had our second meeting with our coach (Carla Stanton, from First Lutheran, Onalaska), to debrief what we learned at the gathering in April with the other "F3" congregations who are participating. Please keep our team in your prayers as we are now moving "forward, fearless and faithful." Watch for ways you can be a part of the work of this team in the weeks to come!

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

On Mother's Day we had fun celebrating the last day of Sunday school, lifting up those with attendance milestones and offerings for World Hunger. We thanked our teachers and helpers who have given so generously of their time and witness this past year. Several of our "classroom grandparents" were able to join us and that was special too! We ended with an ice cream social. The kids sang during 10:30 a.m. worship and truly put their hearts and souls into it. We will miss you in class this summer but hope you will be with us during worship!

Sunday School Offering – God's Global Barnyard

As of May 5th, the "friendly competition" between our classes was complete and we celebrated that we met and surpassed our goal of $1,000, ending the year with $1,002.61. Our 3rd grade class had the most offering with $231.75. The Kindergarten and 5th grade classes were neck and neck all year, but in the end the 5th grade inched ahead to come in second with $216.11, with the Kindergarten right on their heels with $215.

But wait … there's more …

We collected offering on our last day of Sunday School (May 12) and when that offering was counted, we had a new winner! Our Kindergarten class moved ahead of the pack ever so slightly, ending the year with $262, followed by the 3rd Grade with $258.75, and 5th Grade with $218.11. Our end of year total also increased to $1,091.61! Way to go kids!

Those celebrating attendance milestones for the 4th quarter with a trip to the Treasure Box included:

Perfect:

5th Grade: Bennett Fennigkoh … 4th Grade: Briaunna Mathison, Graham Sjoquist … 3rd Grade: Casey Mathison … Kindergarten: Noah Evenson, Mabel Sjoquist

And now check out those kids who only "missed once or twice" for the whole year! They received gift cards to Barnes & Noble for their achievement.

Hungry Jar Offering for June - God's Global Barnyard

Our Sunday School children faithfully brought their offerings this past year for God's Global Barnyard – ELCA World Hunger. They did a great job adding animals to the barnyard and collected $1,091.61! (Check out the barnyard between the pastors' offices!) Wouldn't it be great if we could send $1,500 to World Hunger? Our June Hungry Jar collection will be added to the Sunday School offering and then we will send off the final check to the ELCA. Can you help us meet our goal?

SHELTER & OUTREACH CENTERS
advocating against domestic & sexual abuse

Hungry Jar Offering for July - New Horizons

New Horizons Shelter and Outreach Centers, a shelter for individuals and families who have experienced domestic violence, was organized in 1978 through the cooperative efforts of an informal group of citizens in the La Crosse area who recognized the need for services to victims of domestic abuse. New Horizons Shelter is staffed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year to provide emergency shelter and food to victims of domestic violence and their children. The shelter's Crisis Advocates provide support and advocacy for women and children throughout their shelter stay. Often, when women come into the shelter, they are forced to flee their homes quickly and under great stress, leaving most of their belongings behind. Through community donations, New Horizons is able to provide families with clothing and personal care items. We thank you for your support and care for those who are hurting.

"Grandma's Textile Trunk"

June 27 at 1:30 pm

Ilene Pavelko will share stories about her grandmother and the garments and textiles that she lovingly preserved. Some of the items include a handwoven blanket that came with the Norwegian immigrants in 1853, a bridal trousseau from 1883, a Leap Year crazy quilt from 1888, children's garments from the 1920's, and mementoes from the rural Decorah church where Ilene grew up. Last year Ilene and her sister tried to donate items to Vesterheim, the museum in Decorah. Very few things were accepted, but much was learned about the items that remain. Come and hear the stories and examine these vintage treasures.

Summer Lunch Update

Serving Tuesdays and Thursdays
June 18 through August 22
at 3 locations

We are ready to go for another season of Summer Lunches! We have most of our major donors back again this year and were able to carry over a good portion of money from last year. There are still plenty of ways to help!

If you want to specifically purchase something, our most used items are: peanut butter, ranch dressing, fruit cups, sandwich bags, and snack size bags. There is a box in the gathering area by the nursery to collect these items. Watch the weekly worship bulletins for updated needs.

What we can use most is help! Each individual lunch leader will be looking for help preparing and serving food. A sign up will be coming soon to the gathering area. Please consider giving of your time.

If you can help, please speak with Angie Hemker, or let us know in the church office and we will get you connected. Thank you for your continued support of this important ministry.

Lutheran World Relief School Kit Project

Imagine having to choose between a meal or purchasing a notebook. School Kits are sent to places where even the few required school supplies may be more than a family can afford. Pencils and paper can help write a positive future.

Once again, we will collect items to fill school bags for this ministry. As the summer rolls along, sales will begin for school supplies. Please take this list with you when you shop, as the list of needed items is quite specific. We are unable to send items that are not on the list!

Each School kit contains the following:

1 - 30 cm ruler
1 – BLUNT scissors
1 – box 24 crayons
1 - pencil sharpener
5 – unsharpened pencils
1 – 21/2 inch eraser
4 - 70 sheet notebooks (no loose leaf paper)
5 – blue or black ball point pens (no gel ink)

Thank you in advance for your support.

Our Savior's Mission in the World

God's Work…Our Hands…
Mission Endowment Fund

Another in a series of ministries in which we are engaged as part of our faithful stewardship and discipleship.

The Mission Endowment Fund ministry of Our Savior's isn't all that old – established in 2002, it hasn't even seen two decades. Yet, in that time…great things have happened!

The Mission Endowment Fund receives all gifts designated to it, along with 70% of undesignated gifts and bequests. Currently the principal in the fund is close to $400,000. Only the earnings are distributed yearly. In 2018 that amount was over $13,000 – and over the lifetime of the fund, over $170,000 has been distributed.

And where does all that go? To a variety of ministries and human service programs locally and globally! A small portion of the distribution (20%) is held for capital improvements, but the balance all goes forth to make a difference – a LOT of difference – around the world! From children's ministries to the needs of the hungry and homeless, to addiction and education outreach, the distributions impact real people struggling with real needs. God is at work through our endowment fund dollars!

The endowment fund is managed by a five member committee, elected by the congregation. The funds are held in the ELCA Endowment Pooled Trust. The committee is charged with making the distributions, and each year seeks input from the congregation as to worthy recipients. Though there are some restrictions, most local or global ministries and human service programs will qualify.

We are grateful to those who have left bequests to make this fund happen. And we thank you for your support of the ministry of this congregation which allows the Mission Endowment Fund to be a difference maker in our world!

Congregation Council Review

The Congregation Council met on May 13, with President Lynette Ender presiding. At this meeting, the council:

- Began with devotions and prayer.
- Received and approved the minutes from the April meeting, and received and reviewed the financial reports and pastoral reports from April.
- Heard an update on Pastor Jon's sabbatical plans.
- Received updates on Forward: Fearless and Faithful and electronic giving options.
- Discussed the Stewardship for All Seasons (SAS) initiative and decided to engage in SAS.
- Discussed the resignation of Cat Bottem, Youth Director, and heard that Pastor Jon will meet with a group to begin a conversation about future youth ministry directions.
- Heard that a review has taken place of financial practices by the Audit Committee, and that the committee has met with Ty Tlustoch to consider the best approach for audit work.
- Discussed the situation with the tenant in the house at 345 Leonard St. As the rental is a month-to-month rental, voted to end the rental arrangement as of June 30. Directed Pastor Jon to communicate this to him both by e-mail and certified mail, and to remind him that rents are still due.
- Received into membership the following:
    - Mark and Krissa Byom, with William, Ryland, and Adalyn (transfer from Trinity, Sparta)
    - Erick and Jennifer Maki, with Olivia and Quinn (transfer from Farmington, MN)
- Received into voting membership this year's confirmation class.
- Decided not to meet in June, and to have a council "picnic" at the Enders' in August.

The council meets again on July 8. See Pastor Jean or Lynette Ender if you have any questions.
