Pastor's Reflections

The Lenten Journey and More

As I write this it is Holy Week and we are on our way to the cross of Good Friday and the resurrection of Easter. We have been on our Lenten journey. A Lenten journey like no other. In some respects, this whole last year was a kind of Lenten journey.

As we journeyed this year, the path was far from straight, there were rocks and ruts along the way, there were forks in the road that gave us pause while decisions had to be made, there was nothing fast about our journey, each step was taken very deliberately. One minute the path was clear, the sun was shining and we could see where we were headed; and the next minute we were plunged into the denseness, the dampness, the darkness of the forest, where we could see no light. Life in 2020 ...

Our Lenten journey takes those same twists and turns, moving from light into darkness and back to the light.

Lent is a time of reflection. We take time to reflect on our lives, to reflect on where we are, what we're doing, what we're thinking. And, hopefully, we are reflecting on a life that is centered in Christ Jesus.

Centered in Christ we are reminded to love our neighbors our ourselves; we are reminded Christ died on the cross to forgive the sins of all; we are reminded of the story of the Good Samaritan putting his life on the line to help one who was not like him; we are reminded of healing and restoration to wholeness; we are reminded that Jesus ate with tax collectors and those who were marginalized; we are reminded no matter how much one says they love Jesus, in the midst of fear and uncertainty, in the midst of danger, denying Jesus becomes the way out of the heat of the moment; we are reminded we are weary and can't stay awake. Centered in Christ ...

As we continue to reflect on our journey, we find ourselves face to face with the crucified Jesus hanging on a cross between two criminals, between two sinners. One criminal is defiant, self-centered, telling Jesus to save himself, and while Jesus is at it, to save him too. The other knows he has sinned and asks for forgiveness, knows that he deserves to be there, knows that Jesus has done nothing wrong, and he turns to Jesus asking to be remembered when Jesus comes into his kingdom. Jesus tells that sinner, "today you will be with me in paradise."

Perhaps we can relate to the sinner who knows he deserves what he is getting, but who also seeks forgiveness in the crucified Jesus. How often in our lives do we stray down the 'wrong' path, stray into self-centeredness, stray away from that which gives us life believing we can find life on our own. But there is hope for that sinner ... there is hope for us.

Lent is also a time of repentance. Repentance means to turn around, to change direction, to say you're sorry, mean it deep within your soul, and do something about it. It's not too late for us ... to reflect and to repent ... and to find hope. In the crucified Jesus our sins are forgiven, and in the resurrected Jesus we are given new life.

Where have you seen new life? There is new life all around us ...

- ♥ in newborn babies and families
- ♥ in infants who learn to roll over, opening a new world for them to explore
- ♥ in children who are baptized into the family of God
- ♥ in the adventure of moving from one community to another, or the adventure of changing jobs
- ♥ in the eyes of the marginalized and vulnerable as they are accepted and welcomed
- ♥ in the greening grass
- ♥ in the day lilies and rhubarb that are peeking through the ground
- ♥ in the budding trees
- ♥ in the brilliant sunrise of a new day

Our Lenten journey, our reflection and repentance, has been bathed in the light of Christ. Even in the midst of the darkness, the light of Christ has shown through and we now bask in the new life won for us in the resurrected Jesus. Alleluia!

Celebrating Easter with you,
Pastor Jean

INFORMATION ABOUT
RETURNING TO IN-PERSON WORSHIP

In-Building Worship ...

We are hopeful that in-building worship will return very soon! The Reopening Team and the Congregation Council meet in early April and will consider reopening and how that can be done safely. Watch the home page of the web site – we will keep that updated.

Note that while the Council has not yet set the expectations for reopening, most likely it will include limited numbers (with sign ups ahead of time), masks required in the building, and a need for ushers and “hosts” to assist in making our worship work well.

you MAKE it HAPPEN

... and you can help make it happen!

As we await the reopening, a training for ushers and hosts will be held on Thursday, April 15, at 7 PM (in the building). You can sign up for the training on SignUpGenius at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20F044CA5A629A7F85-usherhost> or by calling the church office. It will be important to have a crew ready, so we hope you can join us!

Collecting Mascara Wands ...

If you know anyone who uses mascara ... we are collecting the used wands for the Wands for Wildlife project – where they are used to help keep wildlife animals clean. Be sure to clean your used wands thoroughly when you're done with them!

- Clean them by soaking in a mixture of dish soap and warm water to get the mascara out of the brush.
- Air dry and put the clean wands in a bag.
- Drop the bag off at church.

Adult Bible Study

Bible study, via Zoom (or dial in as a conference call) continues on Wednesdays

from 9:30 to 11 AM. Some great conversation and probing discussion – all from the comfort of your home!

Not sure how to do it? Contact Pastor Jon or the church office and we'll help you get connected.

Sunday School

Sunday School keeps rolling along. We have started a new quarter of material which means we are learning more new songs and meeting new Bible buddies. Would you believe you have already met eight buddies and learned eight Bible verses!? Great job, friends!!

Can you name all of our Buddies? Who is your favorite? Do you remember the Bible verses or the Bible points?

God Guides Us! Follow God!

The Sunday School lessons (videos) can be found on the church website (www.oursaviorswestsalem.org -- resources/videos). You should also receive an email from Pastor Jean each week with the worksheet that goes with the lesson. If you aren't getting the emails (check your spam file), please call the church office (786-0030) and we'll get them to you.

college

As our college students are studying in challenging environments at home or on campus, we keep them in our thoughts and prayers. This month please pray for: Meghan Hansen (Winona State), Ellie Tschumper (UMN-Mankato), Molly Hunter (U of St Thomas MN), Ashlie Lockington (Winona State), Austin Kennedy (WTC), and Lizzie Averbeck (UW-EC).

From the Youth Director ...

During the month of March, I held a “worship note night” for each class and it was a success. Each group was so excited to be able to be together in Church and work on worship notes, along with having great conversations about each service we watched. It is exciting to watch the young minds grow.

For the month of April, I am starting the outdoor gatherings again. The schedule will be:

- April 7 - 8th graders 4-5:30 PM
- April 14 - 7th graders 4-5:30 PM
- April 21 - 9th graders 5:30-6:30 PM

This will include a great fire, smores, hot dogs and good conversation. I have had many requests to start this again, and I am greatly looking forward to it. Each class will receive an e-mail reminder, so please look for that.

I have been receiving mascara wands for our Wilderness project and that is wonderful. I have a box started so when July rolls around I will be sending them out. KEEP THEM A COMING!

Scholarships

As the school year continues, time to be thinking about high school graduate scholarships! Current high school seniors at Our Savior's are eligible to receive a one-time scholarship, which can be as high as $750. Information will be mailed shortly to seniors, or check out the web page at www.oursaviorswestsalem.org/youth-and-family. Applications will be due April 30, with awards announced later in May.

Emphasis in the scholarships will be on involvement in the work of the church, and how students have lived out their faith. Scholarships come from a variety of sources, including the Michelson and Marking Scholarships.

A change this year is with the Lewis-Meyer Scholarship. This scholarship is awarded to a current college freshman who has connected with a faith community, or maintained active connections with Our Savior's. Due to the difficulties with the pandemic, that scholarship will be delayed for one year.

Finally, a reminder that there are some scholarship funds available for non-traditional students, such as second career, or courses taken to enhance one's career. There is no set deadline on applying for this scholarship.

For more information on any of these scholarships, see Pastor Jon.

SUGAR CREEK BIBLE CAMP - 2021

“Come and See” – John 1

As vaccines are delivered nationwide, safety practices are honed, medical knowledge increases, and the camp program and facilities are adapted, they are confident in moving forward with plans for summer Bible camp.

Wherever vaccinations are in the coming months, all Covid-19 safety practices will be fully in place through the entire summer season. Campers will receive detailed information on prevention, preparations, and camp expectations before arriving for summer camp.

There will be exciting new programs as well as beloved favorites. Check out the Summer Brochure on their website - www.sugarcreekbiblecamp.org.

“Notes” of Thanks

Thank you so much to the vocalists that have been recording music for our on-line services. Their willingness to sign up and come to church prepared to record is truly a gift to us all. Looking into a camera and singing all by yourself is much different than singing with a choir, and we have a great group of singers that participate without hesitation. We so appreciate them! Thank you!

Annual Meeting

Note that the Annual Meeting will be held on Sunday, June 13, following 10 AM worship at the Lion's Shelter. More details will be announced in coming months, but for now, mark down that date!

Thanks “sew” much!

The Quilters, after not meeting for a year, have now met three times. Last October we were able to send 71 quilts to Lutheran World Relief thanks to all of the hard work by Ruby Kerkman and Maryrose Hetland. Eva Farris also helped by giving us two totes of material.

You can be a part of this exciting ministry, too. As you are doing your spring cleaning, we would love to have your old sheets to go in the middle of the quilts. Thanks so much!

Thank you ...

Wrapped in Love

Prayer Shawl Group,

Thank you for the prayer shawl. While I was in the hospital, I felt like my church family was there with me.

- No further plans for in-person worship beyond Easter.
- Approved the minutes of the February 8 Council Meeting, and received the February financial report.
- Heard an overview on what has been happening with our various ministries.

We continue to have Scrip cards available for purchase in the office during the day. We ask that you call
