Pastor's Reflections

As I write this (September 24) I am still pondering yesterday's funeral. My 95-year-old aunt, my father's older sister, was buried in New York. We couldn't attend, but we and a few other family members joined by "Zoom." Yes, these are tough days, but couldn't do that a few years ago!

Bernice was not just an aunt. For 13 of my first 15 years, she and her family were within 30 minutes of us – and no other family was closer than 12 hours! More than that – she was also my baptismal sponsor ("godmother"). She and Paul nurtured my life and faith. Every year on my baptism day, they gifted me with a reminder of faith – I still have one in my office – stop by, I'll show it to you.

And then, October 13, 2002, they showed up, all the way from New York to Michigan, at worship, unannounced. Why? We were baptizing Rebecca that morning, and my baptismal sponsor wanted to be present as a new generation was welcomed into the family of God. What a gift!

Bernice's funeral was also a gift – a gift of a good and gracious God remembering the promise made to her 95 years ago – and a reminder that the same God will not forget the promises made to me, to Rebecca, or to you!

But Bernice is also a reminder that God works in and through community. We are never "Lone Rangers" in our faith journey. Others are there to support and nurture us. And we have a role, even a responsibility, towards others. That's how the Body of Christ works. And quite frankly, if you are going to profess to be a disciple of Jesus, a Christian, and a member of the Church, that's what you've got to do. Be responsible to and for others.

These days that's been tough. We have been told over and over again that there are things we need to do, to stay safe, in the midst of a pandemic. But again and again, we forget that this is not really about "me." It's about what we do for the sake of others.

And that puts us in a bit of a clash, because our culture prizes independence and “me.” Faith does not.

Faith is embracing God’s gifts of life, but also God’s call to discipleship and faithful living. Jesus said, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me." (Mark 8:34) If we are really into Jesus, and really want to be what we are called to be, then...it’s tough stuff!

Tough stuff, as instead of “our will,” we seek “thy will be done.”

Tough stuff, as we seek to be givers, not grabbers. Not just our wealth, but our time, our talent, our wants and desires.

Tough stuff, as we embrace those who are different from us, and as we take time to listen to them and hear their stories, stories which might even make us squirm a bit.

Tough stuff, as we do that which we prefer not to do, but which is good for the sake of others around us.

Tough stuff, as we continue to work through trying times, with everything from masks to distancing to vaccines to having patience and civility even with those who disagree with us.

Tough stuff, indeed!

But we’re not the first ones to encounter tough times and tough stuff. Last summer I quoted a letter from Martin Luther, written in 1527, to a colleague, during an outbreak of the plague in Germany, which wiped out whole families, and even up to half of towns and villages. And in the midst of that crisis, what did Luther say?

"I shall ask God mercifully to protect us. Then I shall fumigate, help purify the air, administer medicine and take it. I shall avoid places and persons where my presence is not needed in order not to become contaminated and thus perchance inflict and pollute others and so cause their death as a result of my negligence."

If God should wish to take me, he will surely find me, and I have done what he has expected of me and so I am not responsible for either my own death or the death of others.

If my neighbor needs me however I shall not avoid place or person but will go freely as stated above. See this is such a God-fearing faith because it is neither brash nor foolhardy and does not tempt God.”

Let's see...follow science...appropriately care for others...work to not infect others...be neither brash nor foolish...don't tempt God.

Tough stuff, but those were tough times. And that is what it means to live out our baptism. To live, not for me, but for others. To continue to meet the needs of others, but not foolishly, so others do not suffer (even death) as a result of my negligence. To be confident that God is with me, but not to tempt God by saying, “I can do what I want – God will protect me!”

I know these are difficult days for so many. We are tired of masks, distancing, and changes in our lives. We are afraid that a way of life might be slipping away, for good. But while our baptism calls us to live faithfully, it also assures us that we are never alone, and that God continues to embrace us. Or...to put it another way, God's got our back!

And so it has been, well, forever. God has given life, nurtured life, and sustained life. And even in these draining, wearying days, God is not done! Life, and the renewal of life, is still flowing. I learned that years ago, from Bernice, from parents, from the church community. And none of that has changed!

God's still got my back!

Pastor Jon

“Returning to Normal” News

With the increased Covid numbers, especially due to the “Delta” variant, we continue to follow safe protocols and take the measures needed to protect those with underlying health conditions and children. Remember that it in Christian community we all bear a responsibility for the safety of others. That’s what it means to be a part of the Body of Christ!

The following safety measures continue to be in place:

- Masks are to be worn in the building at all times, including during worship. The preaching pastor may unmask, but pastors will be masked during the rest of the worship service.
- We will ask those in the building to clean hands on their way in and out, and to continue to be physically distanced. We will also continue to sign-in once you have arrived for worship.
- Sunday School and Confirmation WILL be in the building this year, but with a modified format and schedule – and all teachers and students will wear masks.
- Sunday School will begin October 10, and classes will meet twice a month to allow us to distance the students.
- We will continue to clean the building following worship on Saturday and then again after worship on Sunday.

- 8 AM worship resumes October 10. We will need folk to step forward to serve as ushers (believe it or not, it's easier these days!).
- We encourage you to stay home if you are not feeling well.
- All groups meeting in the building will be required to wear masks.

We know that no one is happy with measures like these, but we also know of some churches that have not taken these steps, and Covid has resulted. Moreover, as of the last week of September, all students in West Salem schools are now masked.

Remember, we are in this together, and want to be together, but we want to be safe. This is how we can do it – for the sake of others. That is what a church does!

Confirmation Ministry

Confirmation ministry for 6th-9th graders is on. We are busy again...making disciples for Jesus!

Here's what's up for October...

6th graders meet every Wednesday evening at 6 PM to continue their journey through the Bible, with Corey Sjoquist as their guide.

7th and 8th graders also meet on Wednesdays at 6 PM as they explore the Apostle's Creed, with Pastor Jon, along with some time to ponder what it means to be a "servant leader." They also have some fun time "outdoors."

7th grade – October 6-20-27

8th grade – October 13-20-27

9th graders have a busy month. They will ponder monsters of various shapes and sizes (October 6 and 20), and then share both fun and faith with younger kids through a Halloween Party (October 27).

Even in trying times, we always have room for more. See Pastor Jon for information on our Confirmation ministry, how new kids can join us, and how you can be a part of making disciples for Jesus!

Last Call ...

Our college students are back on campus and settling into yet another year in the midst of the unknown.

Whether they are at WTC and living at home or have traveled to the far ends of the country, we need their emails and campus addresses. Please get that information to Pastor Jean as soon as possible. We like to keep in touch during the year and let our students know we are thinking about them and keeping them in our prayers.

Adult Bible Study

Bible study, live or via Zoom, continues on Wednesday mornings from 9:30 to 11 AM. We take time to ponder the gospel reading for the coming Sunday, so each session is “stand-alone.” NO previous Bible knowledge is needed – just come and enjoy some great conversation and “faith-deepening” discussions.

We meet in the Gathering Area. If you'd rather join via Zoom, contact the church office or Pastor Jon.

Project Updates

Some updates on our building projects ...

The Tech project is still awaiting equipment that has been delayed. As has happened throughout our world these days there are shortages – including sound boards and mixers! We hope to have installation of our equipment by the end of November, but ... we'll see! In the meantime, we continue to produce a pre-recorded YouTube video of worship, and Zoom our worship as well as we can.

Thanks to several folk for making substantial gifts toward the project, giving us over $16,000 toward the total of $40,000. You can still be a part of making this happen – your gift will ensure we can install technology that will allow us to make a difference in peoples' lives. Mark your gift for "Tech Project."

And then ... the Landscaping Project is also proceeding. New landscaping is complete on the Leonard Street side of the building. We are awaiting some additional work on the East Avenue and parking lot sides. Again, your gift (maybe in memory of someone special?) can help our building look its best! Mark your gift for "Landscaping."

Thank you to our two teams – Tech and Landscaping – who gathered to consider the options and make recommendations. You have done a great job!

Way to go ladies!

The quilters are going to finish the year the best year ever with shipping at least 250 quilts to Lutheran World Relief!

Special thanks to Lynette Ender, who brought four huge bags of sheets from Gundersen Lutheran Hospital, as well as a number of others who brought sheets and fabric to make the quilts and line the centers. Thanks also to those who grabbed a bag of squares and made quilt tops at home during these last many months.

Now it's back to sewing the squares to make the quilt tops for next year ... and you, too, can be a part of this ministry! There will be bags of squares (along with directions) in a basket in the coat room, so feel free to grab a bag (or two) the next time you're in church.

Think of the quilters the next time you're cleaning your closet or out shopping, they can always use fabric and sheets. With your help, just think what they can do for next year!

Thanks again to all for being a part of this exciting ministry!

Lutheran World Relief School Kit Project

The school supplies will be boxed up on October 6th and taken to the box car (actually semi-trucks this year) on October 9th along with the quilts. Thank you to all who brought school supplies and to our 8th grade girls for getting them boxed up. We were able to send 100 backpacks to LWR.

Thank you ...

From our Bible Camp youth ...

... I loved going to Sugar Creek first time! I went horseback riding, visited the farm, campfires, roasted smores, art, and nature time. I can't wait to go next year! From,

Mabel Sjoquist

... We appreciate the scholarship money to camp so much! I had so much fun! We played many games, laughed, stayed on top of the bluff one night and furthered our relationship with God. This was one of the most memorable camp experiences I've ever had. My siblings and I are still all singing a bunch of camp songs! One of the most fun things I learned from camp is a new card game! My cabinmates and I played it so much and it got very competitive. Thank you again,

Lydia Jothen

... Thank you for the great time at Sugar Creek. I liked creek stomping and sugar ball. I also liked the wagon group and the great friendships we made. Even though the weather wasn't perfect, we still made it work out. I enjoyed the animal farm, (even was my favorite). I had a great time at Sugar Creek. Thank you for the scholarship and helping go to that amazing valley. Thank you,

Jesse Jothen

... Thank you so much for all the things you give me. Hope you are doing well through these tough times. Thank you.

Mission Endowment Fund

The Mission Endowment Fund will soon make its annual distribution, and it's looking for your help! We are seeking suggestions on ministries and community programs to support. Each year the fund shares approximately 4% of its value. We anticipate this year to disburse around $16,000.

Recipients of support from the fund should be in one of three categories. You can get guidelines for suggested recipients from the office. The deadline for suggestions is Monday, November 8.

The Mission Endowment Fund began in 2004, and since then has distributed over $200,000 to ministries here in West Salem and across the globe. The Fund receives designated gifts, and 70% of undesignated bequests. We are grateful for the generosity of those who years ago remembered Our Savior's and our ministry in their estate planning. They continue, even years later, to make a difference in the lives of people!

Vacation

Pastor Jon and Pastor Jean will be on vacation September 30-October 5.

Pastor Kris Bjerke-Ulliman will lead worship for the weekend. If you have pastoral care needs during these dates, contact the church office and we will work to meet your needs.

Come and worship, hear God's word in a different voice, and continue to be fed and nourished even in wearying times!
